BRENNER HOLLAND

General Manager - Residential Development Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development, Inc.

Brenner Holland joined Hunt Midwest in 2004 as manager of residential projects, was promoted to director of residential real estate and entitlements in January of 2007 and to general manager of residential development in March of 2012. His primary focus is on the management of the day-to-day operations of the residential real estate division, which is currently developing 12 residential communities located in Kansas City's Northland, Platte County, North Kansas City, Lee's Summit and Raymore, Missouri, as well as the identification, entitlement and acquisition of land for future projects. He is also responsible for the research and development of new residential product offerings including the company's entrance into the senior housing market. He assists with new business development and the oversight of construction services for a wide range of public and private infrastructure projects.

Brenner has over two decades of engineering, planning, project management and construction experience, including coordinating development of master-planned communities. Prior to joining Hunt Midwest, Brenner was employed by a family-owned business, Holland West Inc., as director of operations and as project and construction manager.

Brenner is currently serving as a board member of the Greater Kansas City Home Builder's Association, is on the HBA's governmental affairs committee and is vice-chair of the HBA's Missouri North PAC. Brenner also chairs the Northland Regional Chamber of Commerce's planning and development committee. He is a former member of the Wet Weather Community Panel and the Development Process Roundtable in Kansas City, Missouri and is a former member of the Board of Adjustments and the Planning & Zoning Commission in Bullhead City, Arizona.

Brenner is a graduate of Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas. A native of the Kansas City area, he and his wife Kim and family reside in Overland Park, Kansas.
