BRENNER HOLLAND
Director of Residential Real Estate and Entitlements
Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development, Inc.

Brenner Holland joined Hunt Midwest in 2004 as manager of residential projects and was promoted to his current position in January of 2007. His primary focus is on the management of the day-to-day operations of the residential real estate division, which is currently developing 12 residential communities located in Kansas City's Northland, Platte County, North Kansas City, Lee's Summit and Raymore, Missouri, as well as the identification, entitlement and acquisition of land for future projects. He is also responsible for the research and development of new residential product offerings and assists with new business development and the oversight of construction services for a wide range of public and private infrastructure projects.

Brenner has over 18 years of experience in coordinating development of master-planned communities, including single- and multi-family residential housing projects. Prior to joining Hunt Midwest, Brenner was employed by a family-owned business, Holland West Inc., as director of operations and as project and construction manager. Brenner was appointed to the Wet Weather Community Panel by the Mayor of Kansas City, Missouri, to the Development Process Roundtable by the city manager of Kansas City, Missouri, and is a former member of the Board of Adjustments and the Planning & Zoning Commission in Bullhead City, Arizona.

Brenner is a graduate of Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas. A native of the Kansas City area, he and his wife Kim and family reside in Overland Park, Kansas.
