

Hunt Midwest

ORA H. REYNOLDS

President

Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development, Inc.

Ora Reynolds, president of Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development, Inc., leads the real estate company and its industrial/commercial and residential divisions. She directs the development, marketing, sales and leasing of industrial, commercial, retail and residential properties owned by the company. Primary company assets include SubTropolis, a 1,150-acre underground business complex, Hunt Midwest Business Center, a 1,000-acre surface business park, and 12 residential communities with over 6,000 platted lots. Ora also is focused on strategic planning and expansion within and outside the Kansas City metro.

A native of Chicago, Ora joined Hunt Midwest in 1991 as manager of new business development responsible for seeking potential expansion opportunities. As a result of that effort, Hunt Midwest expanded into the residential development business in 1993. In 1994, Ora became manager of residential development. She was promoted to director in 1996, general manager in 1998 and was named vice president and general manager of residential development in 1999. In 2007, she was promoted to vice president for the overall real estate company, including both the industrial/commercial and residential divisions. On January 1, 2010, she assumed the position of president.

Ora serves on the board of directors of the Starlight Theatre Association and was recently appointed to the executive committee. She is a board member for the Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce and is a graduate of its Centurions Leadership Program. She serves as a board member for the Northland Regional Chamber of Commerce and is a past chair of its Planning and Development Committee. She is a past member of the board of directors of the Home Builders Association of Greater Kansas City. Ora was appointed a Life Director of the National Association of Home Builders and is a past member of its Land Development Committee. In 2010, she was selected by Governor Jay Nixon to serve on the Missouri Department of Economic Development's Steering Committee. Ora was inducted into the 2010 inaugural class of the Midwest Commercial Real Estate Hall of Fame and is a member of the Kansas City Business Journal's "Women Who Mean Business" Class of 2008.

Prior to joining Hunt Midwest, Ora was in the corporate banking industry at Barnett Bank of Tampa, N.A. in Tampa, Florida, and NCNB National Bank of Florida in both Tampa and Clearwater. She is a graduate of Indiana University in Bloomington with a bachelor's degree in finance. She resides with her family in Leawood, Kansas.

©2011 Hunt Midwest Enterprises, Inc. All rights reserved. (#12-11)